100 Years of Women Voting

The year 2020 marks the 100th anniversary of American women voting for the first time. Portia Gage is only one of the women suffragists that fought for the right to vote.

Two other suffragists mentioned Portia in their newspaper article. The article stated that Gage was upset that women weren't allowed to vote, and many women became inspired from Gage. She helped put the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association together in 1867. One year later she tried to vote, but her vote was refused because her name was not registered. The next fail her and 171 woman came back with their own ballot box. I think everyone should have a say in our government man or woman.

Everyone said the polls are no place for women, Portia went to see for herself. Unlike what people said, the men were well behaved. Her influence is still significant today because Gage being one of many people to help women vote. After the Declaration of independence, the Declaration of Sentiments was made for women by women.

Some single women could vote if they met the standards, owned property, 21 or older, have more than £50, and have lived in New Jersey for more than 6 months. After women married, they couldn't own property or vote unlike some single women. This shows not even all women were treated equally. In November of 1869 in Vineland local election, Portia and 214 women voted, with their own ballot box.

Finally, President Woodrow Wilson ratified the 19th Amendment giving women the right to vote. When I'm old enough to vote, I will think of Portia Gage, Susan B Anthony, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and others that helped me be able to vote. I have a voice, because of these remarkable women.

PORTICA GAGE

BY: Elizabeth Roberts

Susan B. Anthony,Portica K. Gage,Ida B. Wells,Elizabeth C. Stanton,Lucy Stone, And Alice Paul. All helped to give women the right to vote all of these women were active in the women's suffrage movement from 1840-1920,In the fight for women's suffrage.

Portia Kelogg Gage (1813-1903) helped organize the women's suffrage movement in 1867, soon after moving to the area from illinois where she was active in women's rights movements. In 1868 she attempted to vote in a municipal ballot. But,was refused because she was not registered,the following year portica and 171 other women returned to the voting area with their own ballot box and voted in that ballot.

The Nineteenth Amendment

The Nineteenth Amendment was formed in 1887. However, with several attempts to pass a women's suffrage law failed until 1919 when suffragists pressed president Woodrow Wilson to call an important congress meeting. Then on May 21, 1919 the proposed amendment passed the House of Representatives and the Senate on June 4, 1919. It was later submitted to the states for ratification. Then on August 26,1920 Tenasee was the last of the 36 states that needed to ensure ratification. Then on August 26,1920 The Nineteenth Amendment was adopted. It was the culmination of decades of work.

These efforts were spearheaded by Vineland's own Portia Gage among others fighting for the right for women to vote. The calendar months are highlighted by winning entries of the Women's Vote 100 contest, which highlights Cumberland County's role in the suffrage movement and the passage of the 19th amendment, 100 years ago. Enjoy the artwork and essays of our fifth through eighth grade students from the Cumberland County school system.

Portia Gage and Influencer and Suffragist for Women's Rights

Portia Gage was an influencer and fought against women's voting rights. The government refused to let women vote so Gage helped organize a committee to protest about equality and they were successful. It's necessary that everyone votes so everybody's opinion is heard. She is still significant today as an influencer, 100 years later because she fought for us for women's rights and succeeded.

To start, it is crucial that everyone has a say. Furthermore, Gage tried to have a say and protest about letting women vote. For example, if most women citizens can't vote than it will be unfair for them since their voice can't be heard. Evidently Portia inspird many women to vote and fight for equal rights which showed them the importance of voting. This shows the importance of everyone having equal rights.

In addition, Portia is worthy of attention because she fought for us and inspired us to fight for equal voting rights too. Portia tried to vote in Vineland, but was not allowed and turned away since women weren't allowed to vote at the time. Along with that, she broke the law to give us equal voting rights. For Example, she did so many things to help us get equal voting rights, not just in Vineland, such as setting up an organization to help provide equalit among all women. This proves that Portia is still important today, since she fought for equality.

To sum up Gage was a suffragist and an influencer who tried o make voting rights equal. It is important for everyone to have a say and be able to vote because then their opinion will be heard and it will be fair. Portia is still significant today because she fought for equal voting rights.

Portia Gage the Women Suffrage activist

Portia Gage is a women's right activist. Woman Suffrage would have still been around if it wasn't for people like Portia Gage. If you don't know what Woman Suffrage is, it was a time when women weren't allowed to vote. It was terrible because everyone should have the right to vote no matter what gender they are. Any citizen should be able to vote because they have the right to express_ their opinion. Portia Gage is still important today because she is one of the people who changed the rights for woman to vote, before they weren't allowed to vote and now they are-because of the people like Portia Gage.

First, Citizens should be able to vote because they have the right to express their opinion. For example, nobody should tell you, you can't do something because of your gender. Back then when Woman Suffrage was around, if a woman tried to vote, they would tell you, you can't vote because you're a woman. And the only reason why women couldn't vote was because of their gender which is VERY WRONG! This proves that every citizen should be allowed to vote NO MATTER WHAT!

Secondly, Portia Gage is still important today because she is one of the people who changed the rights for woman to vote. For example, before woman weren't allowed to vote and now they are because of the people like Portia Gage. If people like Portia Gage and herself weren't around or didn't help then Woman Suffrage would still be around today. But THANKFULLY people like Portia Gage and herself WERE around and DID help so Woman. Suffrage ISN'T still around ANYMORE. This shows_how Portia Gage is still important today for what she did and everybody should or is THANKING her for what she did!

Overall, during the time of Woman Suffrage, there was a women named Portia Gage and she was an activist for women's rights. Woman Suffrage is a time when women weren't allowed to vote. It was a very TERRIBLE time in history! Any citizen should be able to vote because they have the right to express their opinion. Portia Gage is still important today because she is one of the people who changed the rights for woman to vote, before they weren't allowed to vote and now they are because of the people like Portia Gage.qsza qaa

Portia Gage Influencer of Many

Back then when women were not allowed to vote, a woman named Portia Gage fought for the exact opposite to happen. Now, there is the 19th Amendment, giving women the right to vote. Next year is going to mark the 100-year anniversary of making the treaty officially valid. Voting rights are important for all citizens because everyone deserves to have a voice. One person who fought for women's rights to vote, Portia Gage, still influences us still today because now women all over the world is able to vote.

At this point, opinions matter. For example, Porta Gage helped organize the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association in 1867. Her actions inspire alsmost everyone around the world. Portia Gage thought voting rights were important so she fought for it. Everyone deserves to have a voice. Everyone is important in the world. It's not fair if only 1/4 of people get to vote. Every person should get to vote.

To continue, if anyone is still influencing people to vote today it's Portia Gage. For instance, back then when women were not allowed to vote, Portia Gage went with her husband to vote in a municipal election, but couldn't because she wasn't registered. Next fall Portia Gage returned with an additional 171 women with their own ballot box. Portia' Gage's action must have inspired so many people around the world to go fight for what they believe in.

Too sum up, voting rights are so important. Everyone around the world should be able to vote. Portia Gage thought so, and still influences many people. Now women are allowed to vote and that's a great thing. She inspired so many people around the world.

Portia Gage Essay

Women were not allowed to vote until 1920. Portia Gage was a women who stood up and tried to earn the right to vote. It is important to vote because people should have a say in things the government does. Portia Gage is still important today because she is a leader and she stood up for what she thought was right.

To begin with, it is important to have a say in what the government does, One-way people express that is to vote. As an example, everyone should have their voice heard. Standing up to have the right to vote is important. Men women and even different raciest should have the right to vote. This proves that everyone should have the right to vote and also a say in what the government does.

Next, Portia Gage is a leader and she stood up to have the right to vote. Portia stood up and tried to sadly the didn't let her. Portia Gage was born in 1813 and helped organization of women right suffrage. This shows that Portia Gage is a very strong a leader to not just the people in Vineland but everyone in the world.

In conclusion, the 19th Amendment, giving women the right to vote, was passsed in 1920, Next year will mark the 100-year anniversary of the ratification of this amendment. Women wasn't allowed to vote and Portia Gage stood up to for what she thought was right and tried to vote. Voting is very important and still today voting is the best way to express yourself. Portia Gage is a leader and inspired manty people to do what was right.

Portia Kellog Gage

Portia Kellog Gage was a great women's rights leader, many and I mean many women looked up to her, she was like the women's leader when it came to women's rights. Portia Kellog Gage was born on March, 15th 1813 in a nice place called Manlius in the state of New York city. Portia Kellog Gage was married to her lovely wedded husband John Gage on October, 1st, 1830. they were great together. At the ripe old age of twenty three the brave Portia Kellog Gage moved to Illinois in 1836. Portia Kellog Gage stayed a brave citizen in that beautiful for twenty six whole years! Well actually Portia Kellog Gage did not stay in the same place at all, she lived in Chicago for only 12 years but then Portia Kellog Gage moved to the farm lands for 16 years, now that's very and I mean very impressive.

John Gage was born on August, 12, 1802 in Litchfield New York which means he was born almost 11 earlier thatn Portia Kellog Gage now thats a very large difference! Portia Gage and John Gage had agreements and disagreements for instance Portia Kellog Gage and John Gage her lovely wedded husband agree that there should ben an extreme change in gencer, racical, and religious equality. Also Portia Kellog Gage and her husband John Gage disagree because Portia Kellog Gage and John Gage have a huge perspective on dispositions. Portia Kellog Gage was strongly emotive but on the other hand John Gage was strongly reserved but that did not stop Portia Kellog Gage and John Gage her soon to be husband from having their agreements too. Portia Kellog Gage and John Gage married on October, 4th, 1830. Portia Gage sadly died when she was 89 it was tragic.

Portia Gage
Portia Gage was a person who stood up for women to up for herself and inspired other women to try the same thing as her and that was to try to vote. 100 years ago, women were not allowed to vote, some women would stay home and accept the fact that they were not going to vote, but on the other hand other would fight and even join protest to make the president make a law that women could vote.

Portia Kellogg Gage is her full and I believe that she thought women should be able to vote because it is right for everyone to be able to vote. Even though she never actually got to vote even though she tried she still inspired many women to fight for the opportunity to vote. When Portia joined the women's suffrage movement, she was claimed as a hero to not only vineland but to people around the world.

She was a hero and she was knowns as the only other women in the room to be in the women's suffrage movement. She was the first woman to go to the polls and preach against her disenfranchise. Overall Portia Gage was a person who made different's and stood up when nobody would and inspire women around the world to fight for their right to vote in vineland. Also, when she wasn't able to vote she never gave up and she hooked other women attentrion to try to do what she did and to not give up even if someone tells you to
